Chairman

SUBJECT: A Study of Harassments and Provocations

1. The classified version of the SECOM study on harassments and provocations, based on contributions by member departments and agencies, has been printed in final form and is ready for distribution. An unclassified version is in the final stages of preparation for printing and will be available soon. It was prepared at the request of the CIA Member for use in industry.

2. Addressees are requested to advise the SECOM staff by 14 July 1982 of the number of copies of each of these versions they will need.
